TIMES

THE DAILY SERIAL

HOME

MOTOR TRAPS TAKE

Against Speeding.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., Oct. 27.-Two speed traps were in operation on the Washington-Baltimore boulevard yes-erday, and, although there was an almost continuous stream of motor traffic on the thoroughfare, but two violators of the law were caught, an automobile driver for speeding and a motorcyclist for not having his operator's The automobile was that of J. Cary

King, of Washington, who, according to the stop watch in the hands of Constable Thomas H. Garrison, was running at the rate of thirty-one miles an hour over an eighteen-mile road. He put up $10 for his appearance before Jus-tice of the Peace J. H. Shipley. The mo-torcyclist was Lan T. Huster. For not having his card he put up $5 collateral for his appearance.

Before a large audience, Dr. D. W.

Skellinger last night delivered an illustrated lecture on "The Life of Jo-seph" at the First Presbyterian Church.

The Democratic candidates will hold a large rally at Lanham tonight. The principal speaker will be Willam F. Holmead, candidate for the State sen-bodies went about such a fight.

Complete details have been sent them by Secretary C. J. Columbus, of the Retail Merchants' Association, pointing out that the Washington merchants feel that if the store-door delivery serv-

Canada in Fight For

Hyattsville

By ISABEL OSTRANDER PAGES

THE HERITAGE OF CAIN

A GREAT BIG THRILLING STORY

Concright 1912 Frank A Munsey Commany

BY ISABEL OSTRANDER

You Can Begin This Great Story Today By Reading This First

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS. At the Adirondach lodge of Dysart Van Reinsrelaer and his wire victoria are gathered Dysart's brother Robin, Madage Ashley, a divorcee, isertram and Lucilia Goodail and Philip Merriman. Dysart is a close student of heredity, and tells the burty he believes at least one of a criminal mistinets. Victoria shudders at her husband's views and at another time expresses abhorrence at the idea of having children of her own, Lucilie gives Victoria mency for a purpose unknown to her husband. When Victoria does not appear for breakfast. Madage goes to her room and finds her nurdered. which will be the room and the seakfast Madge goes to her room and the ser murdered. Frederick Blatsdell, another guest arives on the fatal morning. The noted detective. Franklin Yorke, brives and takes the helm. He learns that a certain Faul Hildreth, relative of Victoria's, would profit submanually by her death and that Victoria left here hew-spirited for some time. He learns also that Lucille is holding back something from him and that Madge tabley loves. Dynart Van Remsselaer, reddie is called home by a telegram of regic import. Yorke prophesies that the ervant girl who disappeared on the morning of the tragedy will never be found. Dynart recovers consciousness and is introduced by his brother the coroner and w Yorke.

Now Read On

VASN'T needed for the inquest;

"Can you tell me where they have gone?" Yorke sked.
"He was much better when I came way. He seemed more composed, and great deal stronger. I think he'll get all right, now, poor chap! Little its Goodall had hysterics, but that's en coming to her for two days. She emed very much disturbed about omething after you left.—"

A discreet knock on the door broke as sentence off short, and Hazleton is sentence off short, and Hazleton in his rooms, "Can you tell me where they have gone?"

"Can you tell me where they have gone in his rooms, attended by Williams, who knew his employer's moods too well to intrude upon them. Only when he had placed up calling shrilly was, "Mr. Gerhardt Reis"

- Mr. Gerhardt Reis "Frisky Damsels buriesque has yeargused her.

Eduance of her inexperience, she was liking to come for Se a week, but she weed to be so, satisfactory in every with at I was on the point of gaining a raise when she disappeared.

This say where she disappeared.

With a muttered word to his friends
the stout man shifted his black clear

With a muttered word to his friends
the stout man shifted his black clear

It was good business, too Bur-

The name wasn't Kennedy, sar, was which he arose and hastened from the cafe.

Tyrke had no need to simulate the cafe.

Yorke followed him, at a discret discharge in down was in the chorus of your 'Aeroplane Girl' production has season—saw him enter a booth. Whatever the import of the communication which ensued, it must have been highly satisfactory, for the fat man emerged chucking his cigar and eved him pityingly. You don't keep wise to what's getting pulled off on the Rialto, do you? Chorus!

York approached him as he started again for the cafe.

Mr. Yorke, what can I do for you?

I want to get a line on a little blonde who was in the chorus of your 'Aeroplane Girl' production has season—saw him enter a booth. Whatever the import of the communication which ensued the cafe.

Chorus? Say? Mr. Schumann shifted him as he started again for the cafe.

York approached him as he started again for the cafe.

Mr. Yorke, what can I do for you?

I want to get a line on a little blonde who was in the chorus of your 'Aeroplane Girl' production has saw him enter a booth. Whatever the import of the communication which ensued the chorus of your 'Aeroplane Girl' production has saw him enter a booth. Whatever the import of the communication which ensued the chorus of your 'Aeroplane Girl' production has saw him enter a booth. Whatever the import of the communication which ensued the chorus of your 'Aeroplane Girl' production has saw him enter a booth. Whatever the import of the communication which ensued the chorus of your 'Aeroplane Girl' production has saw him enter a booth. Whatever the import of the communication which ensued the cafe.

"Chorus! Mr. Yorke, what can I do for? I want to get a line on a l Don't think I can. Burke. I'd ifke know why your cousin left so abrupt- Burke. though; and when you find her, reher of the two weeks' salary walt-for her."

The stout man beamed again guileless—Marie Burchard. She went big from the start, and by the time the curtain bell rang for the second act I knew my will. Thank you for seeing me, sir. my broker, thank you for seeing sit. Sit. In Seeing sit. Sit. In See you later at the club, Jack!" Phil See you later at the club, Jack!" Phil

There, wait a minute, Burke: There's a sittle matter i want to see you about.

See you later at the club, Jack!" Phil
There, was already. Such a pretty girl, And the see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter i want to see you about.

There is a sittle matter in the properties interpolated yorke.

There is a sittle matter in the properties interpolated yorke.

There is a sittle matter in the properties interpolated yorke.

There is a sittle matter in the properties interpolated yorke.

There is a sittle matter in the properties interpolated yorke.

There is a sittle matter in the properties in the proper lip blurted desperately and fairly bolted se bright and smart!

so far as I can see now, of his ever dis-covering the truth. Remember, Merri-going to ask her pretty soon,

Where are you going now?"
"To call on a lady," replied Yorke, with a quiet smile. "But I very much doubt if she will be at home."

the chauffeur. It was an impos- parture ing, but not over ornate American base-cure, all his preconceived conclusions would be set awry, and he would be farther afield than ever.

No response being vouchsafed to his summons, he rang again and presently summons, he rang again and presently imagined.

From the Waldorf-Astoria Yorke went be heard shuffling footsteps proceeding.

VASN'T needed for the inquest:

"Is Miss Muriel Kennedy at home?"

the coroner took my statement asked Yorke, with an ingratiating smile.

"No, sir. The family's away. I'm the and the general trend of the line of inson to think she worked here for you some time ago as stenographer. You is me time ago as stenographer. You is member, don't you, that girl who is me time ago as stenographer. You is member, don't you, that girl who is made at the was well satisfied with the result of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of a few widely varied minor suppositions, and the end of one of the tangled threads would be in Yorke's hands.

The was well satisfied with the result of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of a few widely varied minor suppositions, and the end of one of the tangled threads would be in Yorke's hands.

The was well satisfied with the result of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of a few wind asked to see Mr. Schumann. There was some little delay, that autocratic gentleinan having seemingly intronced himself in all bu; impregnable was necessary now only to make sure of a few wind asked to see Mr. Schumann. There was some little delay, that autocratic gentleinan having seemingly intronced himself in all bu; impregnable was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unproductiveness. It was necessary now only to make sure of his call, despite its unp Yorke.

I have heard nothing from her since, the halled a passing taxicab and drove down to the Waldorf-Astoria. He descended from his vehicle with every indication of haste, but once inside the engage her, sir, and where she said hotel he seemed in no disposition to inmediately pursue his errand.

In reads would be manner against the attacks of not disintered to the seemed in no disposition to inmediately pursue his errand.

anything of that sort.

course, sn. Yorke assumed an to the course, sn. Yorke assumed an to the course, sn. This should man drew back.

The should man drew back.

Bell mann.

egan defensively.

"Oh, yes!" Interposed Yorke, positivey. "The lady's name is Burke-May Dora Hayes at her best, before she got her big head, when she was really for her saiary, couldn't touch after his accomplice.

Outside in the corridor he mopped his forchead.

"If ever I put in another quarter of an hour like that, may I be hanged!" he affirmed solemnly. "Hope I don't run into you again till this investigation's over, Yorke. I don't want to be sworn in for another stunt of that sort! Won't Jack have it in for me when he finds it out"

"I think not. There's little chance. Is of ar as I can see now, of his ever dis-man, I rely on you fully not to mention she go to dinner and the theater with this matter until I've completed this me when—donnerwetter! she is gone albranch of the investigation. Then you may tell whom you please."

"Oh! You can trust me. Yorke! I'll keep my own counsel, and I'll answer for Robin Van Rensselaer and Bertram.
Where are you going now?"

"Then you don't know where I can locate her?" Yorke spoke in a disappointed tone.

"I haf never seen her since," the stout

RANKLYN YORKE'S taxicab drew up before the house, the number of which he had given he heard shuffling footsteps proceeding leisurely down the corridor within. After some further delay the door was opened a quiet hour running over his notes and and a stout Irishwoman confronted him, rearranging the evidence in his posdiscreet knock on the door broke sentence off short, and Hagleton was sent up there, only just for the chief of police in Pittsburgh is sure he's got her, too."

With a mattered word to his friends the stout man shifted his black clear to be something about having been stendard of the first with the stout man shifted his black clear from one corner of his mouth to the something about having been stendard of the first with the first with the stout man shifted his black clear from one corner of his mouth to the something about having been stendard on the first with a stout man shifted his black clear first was good business, too Burling to make the some had given been stendard on the stout man shifted his black clear first was good business, too Burling to make the stout man shifted his black clear from the stout man shifted his black clear first was good business, too Burling to make the stout man shifted his black clear first was good business, too Burling to make the south to the other from the stout man shifted his black clear from the stout man shifted his black clear first was good business, too Burling the stout man shifted his black clear first was good business, too Burling the stout man shifted his black clear from the stout man shift marginent. "Now sir can you tell me to thad any dea why May left for southad any deal with the show!

"Mr. Reis." I am looking for a young layes—like any outhad any "Belleve me, Mr. Yorke." Mr. Schu-mann leaned forward and tapped Yorke's knee convincingly. "Belleve me,

"I hat never seen her since," the stout man sighed with unmistable frankness. Then he added:
"So she has come into a little money, has she? Well, I'm glad of that. She was too nice a girl to be in business."

ing. but not over ornate American basement mansion, just east of Central Park.

Yorke looked out at it, half expecting to find it blank and boarded up, like most of its neighbors on the block; but, contrary to his anticipations, the windows were half raised, the summer curtains waving idly in the breeze, and it had a generally cheerful, lived-in appearance.

He dismissed the chauffeur, and, mounting the three broad steps, rang the belk This was better fortune than he had dared hope for, yet it perplexed him.

For reasons of his own he had expected to find the house temporarily lenantiess. Should he be granted the interterview he had ostensibly come to secure, all his preconceived conclusions would be set awry, and he would be farther afield than ever.

She lib ed lad to know of that legacy, when I find her."

I hope you find her soon, wherever she is, "the stout man rejoined, heartily. Then he added, wistfully:

When you do, would you tell her, please, if she would like her to go to dinner and the theater with me some night. And if so be that she don't go out with genilemen, she could bring her mother, or anyone.' You understand?"

Yorke looked out at it, half expecting the stout man rejoined, heartily. Then he added, wistfully:

When you do, would you tell her. please, if she would like her to go to dinner and the theater with me some night. And if so be that she don't go out with genilemen, she could like her to go to dinner and the theater with me some night. Yorke loked into the kind, eager face before him, and he felt a twinge of compunction at the role he was playing. "Mr. Reis." he said, carnestly, "when I find the young lady, I promise you i will deliver your message word for word. Good afternoon, and thank you." He was destined to keep his promise, but under what circumstances he could but then in the stout man rejoined.

red arms bare and glistening to the ci-| session in accord with the day's devel-

Missionaries Get

whether I am the proper person to wel- in Oriental fashion, being draped to the to untold misery-indigestion, foul gases, insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, evening service were the Rev. D. D. Gray, the Rev. Lloyd T. Wilson, the Rev. W. O. Carver, and the Rev. J. J. Muir. The Rev. B. D. Graw presided.

to engage her, sir, and where she said size came from; you see, she's run away and I want to find her and bring law home," he explained shamelessly off you could remember where she came for a moment or two at the newsstand, and was finally sauntering on again, brong sir and what tefersace she bronglit I might be able to trace ber." "My clerk, Hazleton, answeled her ad in one of the papers for a position one of the papers for a position, site of the papers for a position one of the papers for a position to impediately pursue his errand. Torke seal to limit that his bosiness was of a confidential nature, however, opened the door of the managerial inner sanctum to him, and he was received urbanely by a large Hebraic gentleman, who residence degantly in a tipped back revolving chair, with his feet stretched and then turned swiftly and followed the boy toward the cafe. Luck had fareful typist, and she seemed quick and the boy toward the cafe. Luck had fareful typist, and she seemed quick and the boy toward the cafe. Luck had fareful typist, and she seemed quick and the first typist, and she seemed quick and the first pursue of the papers of a position to immediately pursue his errand. He loitered in the spacious corridors for a time, bought a paper and lingered for a moment or two at the newsstand, and was finally sauntering on again, when a page passed him, emitting a large Hebraic gentleman, who resident a large Hebraic gentleman, who resident of the managerial inner sanctum to him, and he was received urbanely by a large Hebraic gentleman, who results in a tipped back revolving chair, with his feet stretched door of the managerial inner sanctum to him, and he was received urbanely by a large Hebraic gentleman, who results in a tipped back revolving chair, with his feet stretched door of the managerial inner sanctum to him, and here seemed upon the page back revolving Plates that at place y. ABSOLUTELY GUAR Gold crown, porcelain $5.00 Fillings 56c, 75c, and $1.

New Headdress and Tango Slippers Novel Additions to Milady's Outfit manager. "To make a long story short, Marie Eurchard made the hit of the winter. Hayes hadn't made much of the part, Except for the big aeropiane number, she'd walked through her scenes, shown' her costumes and talkin' her songs in that deep, throaty voice of hers. But Burchard—

TANGO SLIPPER,

Pinned to Stocking.

Here are two distinctly individual

"They sat up in their seats every time she came on, I can tell you, and she put every line over. She used her head, too, and got across with bits Hayes had never taken the trouble to work out. "Well, after she'd had the part a couple of weeks Hayes got wise to herself and came around, but I told her there was nothin doln." Mr. Schumann bit his cigar viciously.

down on the night train. They stated me, and I came down on the night train. They stated me, and I have some stocks I was a little worried about. They were to hold the inquest this afternoon. More detectives that after you left; the whole place was swarming with them, and reporters, two, last night."

How is Mr. Van Rensselaer? Yorka saked.

He was much better when I came sway. He seemed more composed, and a great deal stronger. I think he'll gar a mode the general trend of the line of investigation he was then engaged upon satisfied him, but he felt an odd. He care and the general trend of the line of investigation he was then engaged upon satisfied him, but he felt an odd. He care and the general trend of the line of investigation he was then engaged upon satisfied him, but he felt an odd. He care and the general trend of the line of investigation he was then engaged upon satisfied him, but he felt an odd. He care and the general trend of the line of investigation he was then engaged upon satisfied him, but he felt an odd. He care and the general trend of the line of investigation he was then engaged upon satisfied him, but he felt an odd. He whole place is trained by much and the general trend of the line of investigation he was then engaged upon satisfied him, but he felt an odd. He working on a loose thread, which complicated the whole affair—as if he were working on a loose thread, which complicated the whole tangle, but led nowhere The whole affair—as if he were working on a loose thread, which complicated the whole tangle he were working on a loose thread, which complianced the whole tangle he were working on a loose thread, which compl was sent up there, only just for the stuck his head in.

Continuation of This Story Will Be Found In Tomorrow's Issue of The Times.

"Mr. Warde is disengaged now, Mr. Warde is dis

PAY A LITTLE AT A TIME IF YOU

Painless Extraction

Free With Other Work Dr. C. Vaughan 307 7th St. N. W.

Beekman 1000.

the low-heeled tango slipper, which is indeed sensible for the dancing of the new steps. Attached by means of lew-eled buckles at the sides are ribbons which cross and surround the ankle, being tied at the height of a shoe top. They may be secured at the back to the seam of the stocking by the tiniest of safety pins. merce Commission, and how the local ong, former governor of Massachusetts and Secretary of the Navy during the war with Spain, was seventyfive years old today and the occasion was marked by the receipt of a number of congratulatory messages from various parts of the country.

John D. Long's Birthday.

YOU'RE BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED, HEADACHY! Dancing Footgear Is Very Low Heeled and Is Held by Being MEANS LIVER IS SLUGGISH_DIME A BOX

Furred tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, | everything that is horrible and and is made from a straight width of become filled with undigested food, sweet, liver and bowels regular and yellow. It is swathed about the head in a swill barrel. That's the first step Don't forget your children—their little Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches seating. A Cascaret tonight will surely come from a torpid liver and constipated straighten you out by morning-a 10-cent bowels, which cause your stomach to box will keep your head clear, stomach

Don't forget your children-their little

Packed a 5c Picture House

Mr. Benjamin Cluster, proprietor of the Cluster motion picture theatre in Baltimore, was particularly pleased, at the time he ran the advertisement reproduced here, at the results secured from this very small announcement, which appeared exclusively in the

303 S. BROADWAY SPECIAL FRATURE MONDAY, OCT. 14 SARAH BERNHARDT the world's greatest actress, in her greatest success La Tosca Motion Pictures of Sardou's

Masterpiece in 3 Reels. THE CLUSTER the first theater showing this great feature in America USUAL

ADMISSION

Big 4-Reel 101 Bison

Historical Feature Thursday

Baltimore News.

He advertised a Sarah Bernhardt picture for a South Broadway house a mile out of the centre of the city simply as an advertisement, expecting to lose money on it, but as a matter of fact he filled the house during the afternoon and packed it at night to such an extent that he said he had no more room and could not have accommodated one more person.

During that entire week he received telephone calls from persons all over the city asking if the picture would be repeated. All this, of course, came from perso is seeing the ad in The News, as he had no other means of reaching them.

The News pulls for all classes of legitimate advertising and, as proved by this instance, pulls in spite of the disadvantage of the advertiser's location.

For anything you want or want to sell in Baltimore, from wanting an agent or even a cook to wanting to sell pianos, use the Baltimore News,

'The News reaches almost as many homes in Baltimore as any other two papers put together, and on that account is used by many local Baltimore advertisers exclusively.

Washington Office, Munsey Building, NEW YORK OFFICE: Main 5260. The Press, 7-11 Spruce Street.

Arions Will Give "Ghost Ball" Tonight . TWO ON BOULEVARD

The Arion Singing Society and its "ghost ball" at the clubhouse tonight will open the winter social season of that organization. The "ghost ball" formerly was held on Sunday night, but this is now impracticable under the new excise law. The "ghost ball" is a Halloween performance, and the fea-tures of the ball are being kept very Fewer Violations of Law secret.

The Washington Sangerbund also will open its season with a concert at its ciubhouse on C street. The Germania Maennerchor is another German organization which plans opening its festivit-

"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs." that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without triping. When cross, irritable, feverish of ongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foulconstipated waste, sour bile, and unels, and you have a well, playful child again, When its little system is full of cold threat sore, has stomach-ache, Free Freight Delivery

That Toronto, Canada, is engaged in a fight for the restoration of store-door deliveries, or a reduction in rates to equalize the lack of service, is revealed by a letter to the Chamber of Commerce from the Canadian city, asking for full information as to the fight here, the hearings before the Interstate Commerce Commission, and how the local

AMUSEMENTS

NATIONAL Tonight At 8:15. Popular Matinee Wednesday, 50c. 75c, 31.00.

POOR LITTLE

NEXT | Matinees | Seats | WEEK | Wed. and Sat. | Thursday | KLAW & ERLANGER present

ROBERT HILLIARD in the Great "THE ARGYLE CASE"

Max 3 p.m. LES Victor Hugo's master-plece realistically por-trayed in art motion Night 8:15 Superior to MISERAGLES

ACADEMY Klaw & Erlanger's Massive Production. 6 People-29 Horaca. Next Week-"Lavender and Old Lace."

525 Balcony Scats, Exact Duplicates of 250 Orchestra. All Reserved all perf's. Jesse L. Lasky's New Hit "GLOWNLAND

With BARETTE, VICTOR STONE, and Aug-mented Broadway Cast Julius Tannen The Chatterbox Massden & Fitzpatrick, Isabelle D'Armond & Frank Carter, George B. Reno & Co. Jed & Ethel Dooley, Mack Williams and Ida Segal, Blanche Sloan, Pathe's Motion Pictures of World's Weekly News.

Tonight at $:15. TALIAFERRO YOUNG WISDOM Next Week-MAY ROBSON.

BELASCO ... TON GHI --- 8 SHARP Tonight-Taming of the Shrew, Tomorrow Night-Romeo and Juliet. Wednesday Mati-About Nothing, Thursday-Macbeth, Fridaynee-As You Like it, Saturday Night-Handet, Note-Miss Marlowe appears in all performances excepting "If I Were King."

POLIS

CAPTAIN JINKS OF THE HORSE MARINES Next Week-"STRONGHEART," the Most ppealing Love Story Ever Told.

"The Poor Little Rich Girl" The First Night, Monday, Oct. 27th

The New National Theater PAT WHITE

The Christ Child Society

The Eminent Irish Comedian, SEXT WEEK-DREAMLAND CO